

Dear Steven,

Joanna and I would like to thank you formally for rebuilding the back of our house.

Your sense of design and your ability to communicate your ideas made the process both exciting and enjoyable. The excellent quality of your work has provided us with lasting pleasure. We look forward to the day when we can have you again to do the rest of the house.

Yours truly,

Joanna and Julia